CAUTION

On August 25, 2016, an unknown White male suspect entered the Deer Valley Credit Union located at 16215 North 28th Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona. Once inside, the suspect approached the teller and demanded money. The teller complied and the suspect fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of money. The suspect was wearing gold-rimmed eye glasses and was carrying a black backpack and/or lunchbox.

The suspect in this incident appears similar to the suspect that committed a robbery on August 18, 2016, at the Chase Bank, located at 3620 North Central Avenue in Phoenix. On August 18, 2016, at approximately 11:17 a.m., a suspect entered the Chase Bank located at 3620 North Central Avenue in Phoenix. He approached the teller counter and demanded money. The teller complied and gave the suspect U.S. Currency. He then fled the bank heading northbound. The suspect was described as having a thin build and brown eyes. He was seen wearing a tan golf hat, white long-sleeved button-up shirt, tan pants, tan and black shoes, and was carrying a black backpack. No weapon was seen in either of the robberies. No one was physically injured.
